Dear Hazel:

I'm slow in getting you the current membership list and apologize. The list is up-to-date as of a week or so ago, and if you have any questions please let me know.

I also ought to--finally--give you the numbers for our members, by type. We have 185 from academic institutions, 87 from firms, 77 from a conglomerate I've tagged as court, county, and government, and 54 associates and others. In addition, we mail out 32 copies of the Newsletter to AALL officers, other newsletters and the like.

I've also enclosed some information on conservation suppliers that we use, and a list of suppliers prepared by Solinet. I may have mentioned at the convention that it might be worth asking some of these companies to exhibit in Atlanta. What with an upcoming institute on disaster planning, the special committee on preservation and the fact that this is a hot issue generally, if we could get some of these suppliers it might be of value to others in the AALL.

If I can be of any other help, just give a call.

Best regards

Larry B. Wenger
